Taking technology to society

C-Way

Rules:

- 1) The quiz is all about c and its concepts from ground basics to sky advanced.
- 2) The quiz will also include data structures concepts.
- 3) There will be 3 rounds and points in each round will be carry forwarded.
- 4) If there is a tie, we will have the lightning round.
- 5) Judgment of event head is final and unquestionable.
- 6) Any information other than once mentioned below will be given on the spot.

Please Note:

Rules and procedures of the event are subject to change without prior notice. Please check for the updated proposal on the site. (Also, the current proposal is the updated proposal.)

Round 1: MCQ (Multiple Code Questions)

- ✓ A set of 20 multiple choice questions will be given to the participant and they have to solve them in 10 minutes.
- ✓ Rules:
  - The points (marks) that the participants scores will be carry forwarded.
  - Passing marks out of that paper will be disclosed on the spot.
  - Only 16-20 participants will move forward to the next round.

Round 2: Code JAM

- ✓ Code snippets will be given to the participants and they need to arrange them in correct order or complete them as given in the question.
- ✓ Rules:
  - The twist of this round is that participants will be paired up on the spot.
  - Each team will get 15-20 minutes to complete the task.
  - Only one person out of the two will code (decision depends on the pair), without facing the monitor and the other member will follow the oath of OMERTA.
  - The second member can see the monitor but cannot speak or lips any code to help the coding member. He/she can however guide the coding member via actions.
  - Only 2-3 teams will move forward to the next round.

Round 3: Code ANDHADHUN

- ✓ One single question will be given and the participant has to solve it.
- ✓ Rules:
  - The team will be broken to individuals again.
  - The twist here is that the monitor will be shut and can be open only once the participant is ready to submit.
  - After the monitor is switched on, the participant cannot make any changes.

Round 4: The LIGHTNING ROUND

- ✓ Just like F.R.I.E.N.D.S where there was a tie between the Gals and the Dudes, if there is a tie between any two participants, a 1-minute lightning round will take place where he/she answers very quickly.
- ✓ The person that answers the most questions, WINS.
